For my brothers,
Robert and Kevin Cook.

Though I miss you every day, I still hear your laughter and remember the fun we shared.

This book is for you—two of the best playmates a brother could ever have.

Bobby and his brother Willie are the Grumps. One day, they find themselves bored and don't know what to do. There is no school, and they cannot hang out with their friends since their dad told them to stay inside and play.

Bobby enjoys sleeping in, not needing to catch the school bus this morning. It is always fun to take the bus to school. Normally, Bobby gets to the bus stop early to hang out with his friends.

It is a bright and sunny day outside. It is warm out, and soon it will be spring. Bobby and Willie are sad that their dad won't let them head outside to play.
